W. P. WALTON.

WHILE none of its acts were very creditable, some of the doings of the late socalled democratic convention at Lexington was a disgrace to the name of the State and to democracy. The unseating of the Music Hall delegation from Louisville by a committee on credentials, composed of men never heard of before outeide of their respective townships and the endorsement by the convention of their action, was worse than infamous. It was done by order of the great mogul, Blackburn, and solely to humiliate Hon. A. J. Carroll, who had dared to vote for Carlisle for U. S. Senator over "the cave of winds." This is what he is said to minions obeyed like a lot of spaniels: Bradley, and as sure as God lives and ter treatment. reigns he shall not stay there. nomination for Congress by having the waste. contest in Garrard decided on its merits and because of the fact that the Rockcastle convention as called is illegal. It says: "The committee called the convention for Monday, May 18, but the county chairman who was a Davison man, withdrew the legal call and held the convention the preceding Saturday." THE Virginia democrats, at least those who ran the convention last week, are an illogical and impractical set. They say they "are for sound money-the soundest that the world has ever had or can have" and then declare for free silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. As the commercial ratio is 30 to 1, there would be no gold coined and we would have silver monometalism with a dollar of it worth so much to-day and not so much tomorrow. The country doesn't want that kind of "sound money."

In order to make the thing solid, the radical majority in the House unseated Downing, of Illinois, and now not a single democrat answers to roll call in Congress from that State. THE Jessamine county republican convention broke up in a big row. Although they are said to have been in the minority, the Davison men, backed by the machine, ran rough shod over the Smith-McKinley faction and gave them no show whatever. The dispatches state that every unprejudiced observer expressed the opinion that Smith's forces were in the majority, but they were given no quarter. Thereupon they bolted, 251 strong, and adopted resolutions in dorsing Smith and denouncing the other convention as illegal and unfair and gave emphasis to this: "We condemn the action of Gov. W. O. The Pineville Courier tosses this bouquet to our distinguished fellow citizen: One reason why we regret the triumph of the 16 to 1 howlers in the State is that it precludes the election of Judge J. W. Alcorn, of Stanford, as one of the delegates at large. Of high character and ability, united to a handsome and military figure, the sturdy judge would have been a representative of which all men of all parties in the State would have been proud. We are sorry, but it proves what we have always thought, the democrats don't know a good thing when they see it.

GOOD APPOINTMENT. - The appoint ment by Gov. Bradley of W. P. Walton, of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, trustee of the reformatory authorized by the last general assembly, secures to the State the services of one of the purest men in Kentucky. He always speaks his sentiments, whatever the results; and in expending the fund under his control, his name is a guarantee for its honest expenditure. Whenever Brother Walton tenders his resignation during the progress of work, it is safe to say in advance there is something wrong .- Frankfort Capital.

-There is every evidence that Chief Clerk McEuen, of the office of the superintendent of public instruction, not only sold teachers' examination questions by wholesale but used postage stamps belonging to the State on his "private mail." In other words he is an all around son-of-a-gun.
